

Learn about our local wildlife!

Karamushi ("ramie")

Found on the roadsides of rural areas. It is said to have spread by naturalization of the cultivated form grown for its fibers.

Who eats it?

Akatateha

("Asian admiral")

Larvae eat the leaves.

Adults are found between May and October.

Adults drink
flower nectar

