

Learn about our local wildlife!

Kuchinashi

("cape jasmine")

Fragrant white flowers bloom around June and July. The legs of Go and Shogi boards are modeled on its fruit.

Who eats it?

Oosukashiba

("coffee bee hawkmoth")

Larvae eat the kuchinashi leaves.
Found between May and August.

Adults drink flower nectar.
It is a type of moth.